Topics including advice on what to do if anyone finds themselves having a sudden loss of income or if their statutory sick pay does not cover their living expenses. There is also information on how to apply to the Scottish Welfare Fund, maximising income and benefit advice, debt advice and how to challenge a decision.

Depending upon household circumstances, some may qualify for extra financial support during the winter, these include

- UK Government's Winter Fuel Payment: A Winter Fuel payment is a one-off, tax-free payment during the winter to help with heating costs; it is made to households with someone over Pension Credit age. Most payments are made automatically during November and December. If someone applies for the first time, they will receive their payment by Christmas. The amount a household will receive each winter can vary according to their personal circumstances, such as age or other people living in the house who are also eligible can increase the eligible amount.

If you think you qualify for a Winter Fuel Payment and have not automatically received it, then you will need to apply. Contact the Winter Fuel Payment Helpline by: Telephone: 0800 731 0160 (8am - 6pm, Mondays to Friday) or textphone: 0800 731 0176. More information: <https://www.gov.uk/winter-fuel-payment>

- Scottish Government's Winter Heating Payment: Winter Heating Payment is to help people on low-income benefits who might have extra heating needs during the winter period. Social Security Scotland pays this to people living in Scotland. It replaces the Cold Weather Payment from the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) and has the same eligibility requirements. It's a yearly payment of £50 that's paid automatically. Payments for winter 2022 are expected to be made from February 2023. A letter from Social Security Scotland will be sent to those who are eligible before they make the payment.

- The Warm Home Discount scheme: The Warm Home Discount scheme (WHDS) offers a one-off payment of £150 (inclusive of VAT) towards the energy bills of those who need it most. The scheme is managed by energy suppliers and is a one-off discount that is credited to the customer's energy account, prepayment card or key, during the winter. Contact your supplier to find out.

- Scottish Government's Child Winter Heating Assistance: The Child Winter Heating Assistance is a payment to help families of a child on the highest rate care component of Disability Living Allowance for Children to heat their homes. If the child or young person is eligible, the household will receive this payment automatically.

The City of Inverness Area Committee winter payments scheme is designed to help people who are most in need and meets the eligibility criteria to apply for and claim the one-off winter payment. This Scheme is fully funded by the Inverness Common Fund and is only available to eligible people within the Inverness Wards. The scheme is open from 1 Dec 2022 – 28 Feb 2023 inclusive.

Footpath clearing – support for communities

The Council's Winter Resilience Programme offers help to communities who want to take action in their own areas to help clear snow and ice from footpaths.

We recognise that some communities may themselves be able to treat a more extensive path network. The scheme needs co-ordination between the local community and their Community Council to allow for provision of public liability and personal injury insurance.

The Council will provide grit, shovels and snow pushers, gloves and high visibility clothing, health and safety advice and insurance. The community must nominate a lead contact person, compile a list of volunteers, identify the paths it would like to treat and locations for salt storage and identify what equipment it needs and where it will be stored.

Third Sector Winter Resilience Services in Highland

This document details the services who responded to a winter preparedness survey circulated in November 2022; and while it is not intended to record the full spectrum of third sector provision, it helps to identify those services who are actively supporting winter support.

Mental Health and Wellbeing

Winter can be difficult for many people, and we would like to remind people of the importance of reaching out for help if this is needed over the festive period. Partner agencies in Highland have developed a resource which signposts individuals and communities to trusted sources of support for mental health and wellbeing including where to get help in a crisis; resources/weblinks to support our mental wellbeing; and learning tools to build skills and confidence in conversations about mental health and suicide prevention.

Download the Signposting to Mental Health and Wellbeing Resource for more information and support options

Domestic Abuse

Christmas should be a peaceful and happy time, but we know that it can be inherently difficult for victims and children because perpetrators of domestic abuse are at home, there can be financial and social pressures, victims can be isolated from friends and family.

There are confidential services across Highland which work together and are available to support women and children and provide a safe space for survivors.

You can find information on where to get support here
